

CARNEADES LEGAL LLP is an independent unique law firm.

We support our clients in all legal matters with an industry focus on energy and infrastructure. What makes us different is our efficient, pragmatic and transparent hands-on approach to provide our clients with individual and tailor-made solutions with highest quality. Our lawyers have gained extensive experience based on functions in international law firms and major energy companies over many years.

To expand our team we are looking for one

Lawyer - construction law (m/f) – Hamburg, full time –

YOUR TASKS

- Legal-related consulting within national and international plant construction and infrastructure projects
- Drafting and updating of contracts, supplementary claims and other documents relevant to the contract in German and English

YOUR PROFILE

- Full jury with up to three years of relevant professional experience
- Relevant knowledge in public and private construction law
- First experiences in negotiation management and process representation
- High self-initiative, independent working and communicative skills
- Very good MS Office knowledge (Outlook, Word, PowerPoint)
- Fluent German and very good English skills in spoken and written

– Apply now –

Carneades Legal LLP

Überseering 4
D-22297 Hamburg

www.carneadeslegal.com

Please send your full application documents including your earliest date of entry to recruitment@carneadeslegal.com